CALIFORNIA STORIES

Reading

The Grapes of Wrath

The California Council for the Humanities

Join an unprecedented statewide reading and story-sharing program this October. You'll read Steinbeck's great California novel and share stories about your California experience. It's a program to get Californians talking—to each other.

A program of the California Council for the Humanities
in partnership with
San Diego Public Library

The Tortilla Curtain

an author talk with T. Coraghessan Boyle

A story about California's 'haves' and 'have nots' which exposes some of the circumstances concerning illegal immigration and its relation to such issues as power, social awareness and xenophobia.

This event is funded in part by the California Arts Council, a state agency, and through contributions to the Center for the Book, in the Library of Congress, from AT&T and the Carnegie Corporation of America.

Watch the National Book Festival on BookTV or C-SPAN2
